Subject: Quick idea after reviewing your Airbnb listing in [Rome/Milan]

Hello [Name],

My name is Damiano and I run Lux Oasis Holiday Homes, a licensed holiday-home management company based in Dubai.

I came across your Airbnb listing here: [exact listing link]. The property already looks well positioned, and I noticed a few areas where a revenue-management and listing-performance review could potentially help: pricing structure, calendar strategy, photo order, listing conversion and guest journey.

Through Lux Oasis Advisory & Services LLC / Oasis Revenue Lab, we help short-term-rental operators review their pricing and listing setup using practical revenue-management logic and tools such as PriceLabs. The idea is not to replace your current operations, but to work alongside you and show where performance improvements may exist.

If useful, I can prepare a short free review of one listing and share 2-3 practical observations.

Would you be open to a quick video call next week?

Best,

Damiano

Social DM

Opener:

Hi [Name], I came across your Airbnb / short-term-rental work in [Rome/Milan]. Are you currently managing these properties yourself or with a small team?

Follow-up:

The reason I ask: I run Lux Oasis Holiday Homes in Dubai and we are building Oasis Revenue Lab under Lux Oasis Advisory & Services LLC. We help short-term-rental operators review pricing, calendar strategy, listing conversion and guest journey without replacing their existing operations. If you are open to it, I can look at one listing and share a few practical observations.

Guardrails

- Do not guarantee revenue increase.
- Do not accuse them of bad pricing/photos.
- Do not mention commission or commercial terms in the first message.
- Personalise with the exact listing link before any send.
- No external outreach without Damiano approving the correct host, correct email/social profile and final wording.
